

Beyond militarism: The importance of whole- of-society partnerships to effective PVE and CT

Please join us for a webinar hosted by UN Women, ODIHR and DCAF to discuss barriers to integrating a gender perspective in policy and programming to prevent and counter violent extremism and terrorism.

Experts will discuss good practices for policy makers and security actors to ensure the participation of civil society when designing and executing PVE strategies, including gender equality as an integral part of peace and security.

Interpretation available in English, French, Georgian and Arabic.
